Applications for the summer 2019/20 round are open 5 August through 30 August

Aurora Internship Program for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and graduates

Are you interested in a funded internship in your area of study?

Aurora Indigenous sector Hosts welcome academic backgrounds in:

» law or law/business
» social sciences • anthropology • archaeology • sociology • community development • cultural heritage • education • environmental management • history • human geography • Indigenous studies • media/communications • film • music • creative arts • STEM
» health science/social welfare • psychology • social work • paramedicine

Opportunities outside of the sector are also available so long as the placement is relevant to the candidates' study and career aspirations.

Commonwealth funded internships for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and graduates

4 to 6 week winter & summer placements

Funding covers: $800/week living expenses; airfares & accommodation for away from home placements

Over 30 rural, remote and city placements across Australia

- 242 Indigenous alumni • Over 200 Aurora Hosts
- 27% internship alumni employed in the Indigenous sector
- Over 520,000 hours additional capacity provided to the sector
- Approx. $13 million cost savings to the sector

auroraproject.com.au/internship-program

Proudly supported by the Australian Government

THE AURORA PROJECT