

Claire Hains

Manager, Valuations and Advisory, JLL

"The property sector relies heavily on referrals and word of mouth recommendations when looking to appoint a new staff member. It is imperative that property students understand this 'hidden job market' when considering their plan to obtain a graduate role.

A critical step students need to take is connecting with industry contacts and forming a network while still at Uni - joining a professional association as a student member is an excellent way to do this."

WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF PROPERTY

Gain a valuable overview of the property profession and learn about the opportunities that align with your career aspirations. This event connects first-year students with representatives from key industry bodies such as:

- Australian Property Institute
- Property Council of Australia
- Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors
- Urban Development Institute of Australia

KICK START YOUR CAREER

As a property student you have access to annual speed networking and career workshops.

Engage with up to 30 property professionals and discuss potential employment pathways.

Learn more about:

- working with major international firms such as JLL, CBRE, Colliers and Knight Frank
- the valuation profession
- the development profession and development industry

PROPERTY MENTOR SCHEME

You have the opportunity to access a mentor from the property profession as part of the Property Asset Management course. Approximately 20 hours of the course is allocated to time with your mentor who could be working in a major firm locally or internationally.

Your mentor can provide an insight into the property industry through:

- site visits
- sales and leasing meetings
- building inspections
- collection of sales data
- asset management activities

Creating a network around you can be extremely important and rewarding. Making these connections with industry allows you to gain advice and seek out opportunities that will contribute to your professional career.

Patrick Bush

Office Leasing Executive
JLL

“Networking opportunities provided within the Property degree allowed us to engage with industry representatives in a professional capacity.

Being able to get advice and guidance for potential career options from Managing Directors and other senior professionals has been invaluable.”

“The Property Mentor Scheme provided me with the opportunity to undertake work experience with Knight Frank Valuations. I developed key insights into the position of a Property Valuer during this time.

The connections I made have been extremely important in establishing a career beyond my studies.”
