

Application for Academic Transcript & Australian Higher Education Graduation Statement (AHEGS)

- A copy of current photo identification must be submitted with your application. Examples of which include a driver's licence or passport. Applications submitted without current photo identification will not be processed.
- You can select to have your Academic Transcript or AHEGS issued either online or in printed format.
- Online documents are accessed via the My eEquals online portal and can be shared securely with third parties such as prospective employers or other educational institutions. You will be advised via your nominated email address when your online documents are available.
- Printed documents can be collected in person from Campus Central or delivered to your nominated mailing address.
- Printed academic transcripts are produced free of charge when being sent directly to another tertiary institution.
- An academic transcript is the complete history of a student's enrolment at the University of South Australia or one of its antecedent institutions and includes all programs of study and the relevant courses.
- An AHEGS is the description and account of a program of study for which all the requirements have been completed, and an award conferred.
- AHEGS are only available to students who have been conferred on or after 20 December 2010.
- Documents will not be issued to students who are in Bad Financial Standing with the University.
- Transcripts and AHEGS usually take up to four working days to produce, however records for students who studied at one of the University's antecedent institutions may take up to three weeks to prepare as some of the records have been archived.
- More information about Academic Transcripts can be found here.
- More information about AHEGS can be found here.
