

2019's COMMENCING RESEARCH DEGREES CANDIDATES ARE INVITED TO ...

GET OFF TO A FLYING START

Thursday 28 February 2019, 9.00 am – 12.50 pm, Bradley Forum H5-02, City West

Just starting your PhD or Masters by Research? Wondering what to do next? At this workshop find out about:

- What exactly is a research degree?
- How do I get started on my research?
- What resources are available to me & who can help me find these resources?
- What is a supervisory panel? How can I interact effectively with my supervisors?
- How can I balance my research degree and my life?
- How can I meet other research degree candidates?
