UniSA Acknowledgement of Peoples and Country

We respectfully acknowledge the Kurna, Boandik and Barngarla First Nations Peoples and their Elders past and present, who are the First Nations' traditional owners of the lands that are now home to the University of South Australia's campuses in Adelaide, Mount Gambier and Whyalla.

We are honoured to recognise our connection to the Kurna, the Boandik and the Barngarla lands, and their history, culture and spirituality through these locations, and we strive to ensure that we operate in a manner which respects their Elders and ancestors. We also acknowledge the other First Nations of lands across Australia with whom we conduct business, their Elders, ancestors, cultures and heritage.

Kurna

UniSA tampinhi, UniSA Kurna yartangka yuwanthi.

We acknowledge that the University of South Australia is on the traditional country of the Kurna people of the Adelaide Plains. We recognise and respect their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship with the land, and we acknowledge that they are of continuing importance to the Kurna people living today.

Boandik

I recognise this country (is) the country of the Boandik, the custodians of Mount Gambier and the country around Mount Gambier.

Barngarla

We acknowledge and respect the Barngarla people as the traditional custodians of the ancestral lands. We acknowledge the deep feelings of attachment and relationship of Barngarla people to the country and the sea.

Chancellor's welcome

Today is a time for celebration as you mark both the end and the beginning of exciting and sometimes very challenging times. It is also an occasion on which to look forward to the opportunities available to you as a graduate of the University of South Australia.

The University is honoured to be able to share this special event with you, and your family and friends.

During your time with the University of South Australia you have developed a set of distinctive qualities which describe the knowledge, skills and personal abilities that you will need as you move into a constantly changing global economy.

You have acquired an international outlook; a capacity for critical thought and lifelong learning; an ability to communicate effectively and work autonomously and cooperatively; and a sense of social responsibility. You are well equipped to succeed, confident in the knowledge and skills you possess.

Congratulations and all the very best as you start the next big adventure in your lives.

Ms Pauline Carr
Chancellor

Ms Pauline Carr

Pauline Carr is the Chancellor of the University of South Australia. She has over 30 years of management and commercial experience in the resources industry with both Australian and international companies. In addition she has over 20 years comprehensive compliance and governance experience with listed company boards. Previously Ms Carr was a senior executive with Normandy Mining Limited, where she was actively involved in the company's growth, its corporate activities and its international expansion and subsequently Newmont Mining Corporation.

Ms Carr is currently chairman of National Pharmacies and the SA Government's Minerals and Energy Advisory Council. She is also a non-executive director of ASX-listed companies Highfield Resources Limited and Australian Rare Earths Limited. Her areas of expertise include continuous improvement governance, compliance and risk management.

Vice Chancellor's welcome

Graduating with a university degree represents a major milestone in life. Now, after some well publicised challenges, your hard work and resilience has been recognised and rewarded.

You will leave us today with a parchment and a career path and we couldn't be prouder of you.

We are all very pleased to share the excitement of this day with you and with the people who have supported you throughout your studies: your family, your friends and your mentors.

Yours is an important graduation ceremony and we are celebrating your success along with our own. We have come a long way since 1991 when we amalgamated colleges of advanced education and institutes of technology to become the University of South Australia. Now we're considered one of the world's best young universities – Australia's University of Enterprise – putting our best teaching and research into creating bright futures for our students and partnering with industry and the professions to bring the benefits of that teaching and research to our community.

We hope the achievement you celebrate today opens many doors of opportunities for you so that you can make your mark as a global citizen, a professional in everything you do.

You, like over 230,000+ graduates who have preceded you, are very important to us; you are our success stories, the role models for current students and those who might follow in your footsteps. As your career grows and your success is assured, current students look at you and see what's possible in their own lives.

We wish you every success, happiness and prosperity as you take your first steps into your new lives as graduates of the University of South Australia.

Professor David Lloyd
Vice Chancellor and President

Professor David Lloyd

CCHEM, FRSC, FTSE, PhD,
BSc(Hons)

David Lloyd was appointed to the University of South Australia as Vice Chancellor and President in 2012. A Dublin-born and educated chemist who specialises in computer-aided drug design, Professor Lloyd has re-focused institutional culture to position UniSA as Australia's University of Enterprise and to shape its activities to better meet the challenges of the 21st century.

Professor Lloyd was a member of the South Australia Economic Development Board (EDB) from 2014 to 2018. A past Chair of the Australian Technology Network group of technology-focused universities, he now sits on the board of Universities Australia, the peak body representing the university sector where he is the lead vice-chancellor for research & innovation. He was also appointed to the Australian Research Council's (ARC) Advisory Council to provide advice to the ARC on key research policy issues, to lend independent strategic guidance and experience that will strengthen the ARC's ability to support research and innovation in Australia.

Before joining the University of South Australia, Professor Lloyd was Vice-President for Research and later Bursar and Director of Strategic Innovation at Trinity College Dublin. Professor Lloyd was Chair of the Irish Research Council and prior to academia, worked in the pharmaceutical industry in the UK. He holds an honorary Professorship from Tianjin University. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Chemistry and a Fellow of the Australian Academy of Technology and Engineering.

About the University of South Australia

The University of South Australia (UniSA) is a globally connected and engaged university, with a core focus on delivering research and education that will support solutions for both industry and the professions. It is Australia's University of Enterprise.

UniSA's teaching is industry-informed, and through strong industry engagement, its researchers create knowledge that is central to global economic and social prosperity.

In the most recent Excellence in Research Australia assessment (2018), across 39 fields, all UniSA research was ranked as world class or better. The University was also assessed as having almost 80 per cent of its research at the highest level of positive impact in society.

People, Programs and Precincts are the heart of UniSA operations.

Recognised globally for excellence and equity - in a fast-moving world, UniSA is well-known for the relevance of its degree programs.

UniSA is ranked in the top 50 best young universities in the world by both Quacarelli Symonds (QS) and Times Higher Education (THE) with a five-star rating for research, teaching facilities, employability, internationalisation, social responsibility and innovation (QS Stars Ratings).

The largest university in South Australia, UniSA teaches more than 37,000+ students located across four metropolitan and two regional campuses and through its innovative online education - UniSA Online - where all programs have been designed specifically by the University for this mode of learning.

Students choose from more than 200 world-class degrees across a wide range of disciplines, including business, accounting, law, education, nursing, physiotherapy, podiatry, medical radiation, exercise science, pharmacy, information technology, software engineering, science, mathematics, engineering, contemporary art, creative industries, journalism, psychology, social work and more.

Practical learning, informed by industry best practice, is central to UniSA's teaching approach. Our graduates are a new breed of professionals - confident global citizens, able to respond to change, ready for opportunities that arise, and to create opportunities that contribute to their communities.

Collaborations with more than 2,500 companies worldwide to bring students placement, project, research and work opportunities, have delivered UniSA a number one ranking in the State for graduate careers, student satisfaction and graduate employability by ComparED (QILT).

The University is also closely engaged with the communities it serves. MOD. at UniSA is a futuristic museum of discovery that inspires young people about science and technology, showcasing how research shapes our understanding of the world around us to inform our futures. UniSA's Samstag Museum of Art presents a changing exhibitions program of contemporary visual art and its Hawke Centre engages with local and international communities through public lectures, seminars and research projects.

The University also has a strong equity mission and was the first South Australian university to launch a Stretch Reconciliation Action Plan which creates greater opportunities for Aboriginal peoples in education and employment and embeds their culture into the University.

UniSA is a place for unstoppable people.

Our journey so far

The University of South Australia (UniSA) was established in 1991 but our foundations date back to the latter half of the 19th century. The forerunners of today's UniSA were the South Australian School of Art, founded in 1856, the first of several Teacher Training Colleges formed in 1876, and the School of Mines and Industries which was established in 1889. These schools were renowned for providing quality education and for responding to the needs of the nascent colony of South Australia.

The School of Art was established by Charles Hill just 15 years after the proclamation of the new colony of South Australia.

1876

The Training School, the first South Australian Teachers College, was founded.

1889

The South Australian School of Mines and Industries was established.

1906

1907

1918

The Adelaide Technical High School was founded as a preparatory school for the courses offered by the School of Mines and Industries.

1960

The Adelaide Technical High School and the South Australian School of Mines and Industries merged to form the South Australian Institute of Technology (SAIT).

1965

The SAIT opened Whyalla campus to meet the growing demand for skills in the steel and shipping industries.

1973

The Aboriginal Task Force was established at the South Australian Institute of Technology and provided some of the first education in social work specifically for Indigenous students in Australia. It was the first tertiary program of its kind in Australia and provided an enclave of support for its students and a path forward that encouraged careers built on education.

1982

The South Australian College of Advanced Education (SACAE) was formed out of the amalgamation of the Adelaide College of the Arts and Education (including the Underdale and City campuses) along with the Hartley (Magill), Salisbury and Sturt Colleges of Advanced Education.

1991

The University of South Australia (UniSA) was established upon the merger of SAIT and three SACAE campuses.

UniSA commenced teaching programs offshore, beginning with the International MBA in Singapore.

Professor Eleanor Ramsay, the first-ever Australian Pro Vice Chancellor charged with improving equity and access to education, was appointed.

UniSA identified seven unique graduate qualities that described the knowledge, skills and personal abilities required in professional careers.

UniSA became the first Australian university to develop a Statement of Commitment to Australian Reconciliation.

The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre was established.

Professor Denise Bradley was named the University's Vice Chancellor and President.

Extensively involved in national education policy groups for more than two decades, she chaired the Expert Panel in 2008 that undertook the National Review of Higher Education.

Now Emeritus Professor Denise Bradley AC, she was made a Companion of the Order of Australia, Australia's highest honour, in recognition of her service to higher education.

Professor David Robinson appointed Vice Chancellor.

The Hon Dr Basil Hetzel AC appointed Chancellor of the University of South Australia.

1994

Two of the University's key research institutes, the Ian Wark Research Institute (IWRI) and the Institute for Telecommunications Research (ITR), were officially opened.

1996

The Unaipon School was opened offering a range of programs in Aboriginal and Australian Studies.

1998

1999

UniSA won the Business SA Export Award for education for the first time.

2000

2002

UniSA was named the leading provider of offshore programs in Australia by IDP.

FedSat, Australia's experimental satellite developed by the CRC for Satellite Systems and including UniSA-designed payloads, was launched.

The UniSA Northern Adelaide Partnerships (UNAP) program was established to underpin economic and social development and improve education participation in severely disadvantaged communities.

The University of South Australia Business School became only the second in Australia to receive European Quality Improvement System (EQUIS) accreditation, one of two major forms of international accreditation for business schools.

The University received an overwhelmingly positive report from the Australian Universities Quality Agency (AUQA) audit, including 16 commendations for good practice.

UniSA received $10 million in funding from the Australian Government to establish a Chair in Child Protection at the University.

UniSA delivered the Australian International Space University intensive professional development program, confirming South Australia's position as a centre for space education and training.

UniSA won the Institutional Award from the Australian Learning and Teaching Council for Provision of Services to the Community.

The University celebrated its 10th anniversary.

2003

UniSA was named an Employer of Choice for Women for the first time.

2005

The first stage of the University's $100 million capital development program, Blueprint 2005, was completed and five new buildings—the Kaurna Building, the Dorrit Black Building, the Garth Boomer Building, the Basil Hetzel Building and the Mawson Centre—were opened.

The University launched four new research institutes – the Ehrenberg Bass Institute for Marketing Science, the Sansom Institute for Health Research, the Hawke Research Institute for Sustainable Society, and the Institute for Sustainable Systems and Technologies (since renamed the Barbara Hardy Institute).

The UniSA Mount Gambier Regional Centre was opened and the Centre for Regional Engagement established.

UniSA was ranked in the top 200 universities worldwide by The Times Higher Education Supplement.

Professor John Ralston was named UniSA's first Laureate Professor.

The Australian Minerals Science Research Institute (AMSRI), headquartered at UniSA's Ian Wark Research Institute, was officially opened. It was supported by the largest ARC Linkage Grant ever awarded.

The Royal Australian Institute of Architects awarded the nation's highest accolade for a public building to UniSA's Karna Building.

UniSA was awarded $40 million through the Federal Government's Education Investment Fund to help build the $73 million building to house the Materials and Minerals Science Learning and Research Hub at Mawson Lakes.

Dr Ian Gould, a resources industry professional, was appointed as the University's new Chancellor following the retirement of David Klingberg AM.

The UniSA College was launched to offer more opportunities for South Australians to gain access to tertiary education.

UniSA joined forces with the International Space University in Strasbourg, France, to bring world-class space education to the southern hemisphere.

UniSA secured $30 million from the Federal Government's Education Investment Fund towards the cost of a $85 million learning centre to be built in Adelaide's West End.

In the 2011 QS World University Rankings, the University of South Australia showed the biggest improvement of any Australian university for the second year running to be ranked 11th in Australia.

The first national Excellence in Research for Australia (ERA) assessment showed that around 70 per cent of UniSA research assessed was world-class standard or above.

2009

Associate Professor Mahfuz Aziz won the Prime Minister's Award for the Australian Teacher of the Year.

The UniSA-based Centre for Muslim and Non-Muslim Understanding was launched in India by then Minister of Education and future Prime Minister, Julia Gillard.

The second Excellence in Research Australia (ERA) assessment rated more than 86 per cent of UniSA's research as world-class or better.

Chemist, researcher and Irish university leader, Professor David Lloyd, is appointed as the University of South Australia's new Vice Chancellor and President.

The new China-Australia Centre for Sustainable Urban Design, is founded in partnership with Tianjin University.

UniSA became the first university in the world to host an online brainstorming event and ideas generator – unijam. It hosted 17,000 unique posts and more than 1300 conversation threads from across 56 countries.

Crossing the Horizon was launched – a strategic action plan designed to change the way the University operates and engages with its communities.

UniSA ranked in the world's top 50 under 50 years of age by both the QS and THE world university rankings. The University also ranked in the THE's global Top 100 for engineering and technology.

UniSA's MBA program is one of only three nationally to win a five-star rating for the sixth consecutive year from the Graduate Management Association's Good Universities Guide.

An alliance with SA Pathology is announced that will see UniSA support the growth of one of Australia's top cancer research centres. With a Federal Government investment of $40 million, the Centre for Cancer Biology (CCB) expansion was announced by the then Prime Minister Julia Gillard during a visit to UniSA in June.

The University was appointed lead partner of a new Cooperative Research Centre for Cell Therapy Manufacturing set to underpin significant innovations in the treatment available for diabetes, wound, and transplant patients.

In April the University's $85 million Jeffrey Smart Building was officially opened, featuring eight floors spanning 12,480m² with the latest technologies and cutting edge learning spaces.

To mark the 20-year partnership between UniSA and Hong Kong Baptist University, a new suite of jointly offered full-time degrees is launched.

UniSA partners with the Institute for Choice to bring global experts together in the science of human choice behaviour; and is announced as the national headquarters for an $88 million Data to Decisions CRC.

UniSA was ranked as one of the world's best young universities (THE ranks us #38 on their list of the world's best 50 under 50; Quacarelli Symonds moves us up to #25). We had some stunning research results as well: Excellence in Research Australia rated 97 per cent of our assessed research as world-class or above.

UniSA was also ranked as one of the world's best international universities. We entered into a significant relationship with the University College London to establish our Future Industries Institute (FII) and became the recipient of an incredibly generous contribution from the late, great, Sir Terry Pratchett, a perpetual scholarship fund worth more than $1 million.

UniSA also opened the Innovation Collaboration Centre at City West in partnership with Hewlett Packard Enterprise and forged a partnership with one of China's largest drug manufacturers, Yabao Pharmaceuticals, to develop and bring to market new cancer treatments.

Future Industries Institute (FII) was officially launched and received $7.5 million from the South Australian Government.

Professor Irene Watson was appointed as the first Pro Vice Chancellor: Aboriginal Leadership and Strategy, and Unaipon Chair.

Esteemed investment banker, Chairman of the Sydney Swans Board and UniSA Alumnus, Andrew Pridham, presented a $5 million philanthropic gift to support construction of the new great hall. Acknowledging this as the largest single private donation in the University's 25 year history, the multipurpose facility was named Pridham Hall.

UniSA's rapid rise up the international rankings continued with Times Higher Education (THE) rating the university as #32 in their list of the world's best young universities. UniSA was the youngest Australian university on the list and ranked by THE as #9 in Australia, of universities of any age. UniSA's Law School, in only its 10th year, was ranked as one of the world's best at #88 and the best in South Australia. Quality Indicators for Learning and Teaching (QILT) rated UniSA as #1 in South Australia for graduate careers and for student satisfaction.

In 2017 UniSA developed a new suite of high-quality, 100 per cent online undergraduate courses that can be studied anytime, anywhere.

Major new infrastructure opened when UniSA launched two new buildings. Pridham Hall and the University of South Australia Cancer Research Institute were both opened in May 2018. Pridham Hall is a $50 million cultural and sporting centre of the University.

The $247 million University of South Australia Cancer Research Institute, is home to UniSA's research-rich School of Pharmacy and Medical Sciences, the globally recognised Centre for Cancer Biology and our technology-based business incubation hub, the Innovation Collaboration Centre. The building is also home to MOD., Australia's leading future focused museum.

The new Samsung SMARTSchool, one of the most technologically advanced teacher-training facilities in the country, opened its doors at UniSA's Magill campus.

In September, UniSA appointed a new Chancellor, Ms Pauline Carr. With more than 30 years' management and commercial experience in the resources industry, Ms Carr has been a member of the University's Council since 2010.

UniSA launched its Enterprise25 plan, re-imagining UniSA with a laser-like focus on its programs and an aim to reduce its operational silos. The plan is to re-shape and review programs to ensure they are leading-edge, end user endorsed and that are all ranked among the best in the world.

UniSA became the lead institution for one of the most significant space industry research concentrations in Australia, heading up a new Cooperative Research Centre for Smart Satellite Technologies and Analytics – The SmartSat CRC.

The new CRC is a national research powerhouse involving a $190 million investment in cash and in-kind from 84 research and industry partners.

With $55m funding from the Federal Government through the Department of Industry, Science & Technology's successful CRC program, the SmartSat CRC will be the biggest investment in space industry R&D in Australia's history. It will play a key role in meeting the Australian Space Agency's goal to triple the size of Australia's domestic space industry to $12 billion, generating an extra 20,000 jobs by 2030.

In 2019, UniSA geared up for a future that is being transformed by technology, both in the way industry operates and in the expectations of our students.

As a key commitment in the University's strategic plan – Enterprise25, UniSA introduced a program-focused organisational structure. This will allow us to achieve our ambitions and ensure that we continue to deliver quality teaching, research and student outcomes.

Despite the phenomenal impact of the bushfires, followed closely by the COVID-19 pandemic which closed down much of the nation, UniSA proved unstoppable, swiftly moving our teaching online.

The University continued to feature in the world's top 50 under 50 in both THE (#25) and QS (#29), solidifying our status as one of the best young universities.

UniSA business education and research was awarded another significant international endorsement, earning the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) international business accreditation. This was coupled with a full five-year reaccreditation from the leading international network for management development (EFMD).

In 2021, UniSA celebrated 30 unstoppable years. Since 1991, we have been continuously recognised as one of the world's best young universities by both THE and QS, and ranked #1 in South Australia for graduate outcomes, student satisfaction, campus facilities, student services and teaching quality by QILT.

We also boast the most diverse student community in the state, with the largest number students with a non-English speaking background, disability or low socio-economic status. UniSA also has the largest cohort of regional and Aboriginal students, along with female students completing studies in non-traditional areas.

A significant educational figure in the University's history was also honoured – the late Emeritus Professor Denise Bradley AC. She became the namesake of the Bradley Building located on North Terrace – home to some of the brightest minds in cancer research and a place for unstoppable people to create, learn and explore.

Our staff and students continued to show their ability to be flexible, with online lectures remaining as part of the learning experience, and face-to-face tutorials and practicals returning to the mix. We also welcomed new cohorts of international students to UniSA, commencing their studies online from their home country.

Towards the end of our 30th birthday year we honoured the legacy of a leading Kaurna thinker, philosopher and educator and re-named our Law Building the Lewis Yarlupurka O'Brien building. Uncle Lewis has made a significant contribution not just to his people but to the UniSA community as well. He has worked tirelessly to create opportunity for Aboriginal Peoples over many decades and he has made a significant contribution to teaching and research at UniSA, promoting Aboriginal language and culture.

The Lewis O'Brien Building will be the future home of UniSA's Aboriginal Knowledges Centre, a community gathering space to foster cultural connections and knowledge sharing.

And, to end the year on an even bigger high, we were once again ranked amongst the top young universities in the world whilst being ranked as the number 1 university in South Australia for graduate careers.

Early in 2022 we welcomed the return of many of our international students who once again made our campuses come alive with their unique, vibrant and multicultural perspectives.

Processional Music

Ancient Land Processional

The processional music played at the start of the graduation ceremony has been composed by Deborah Cheetham AO. The work is sung by the Ngarrindjeri Women's Choir and the Marryatville Concert Choir, supported by the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Nicholas Buc.

"From the beginning I wanted this processional to be a powerful reminder that knowledge has been passed for more than 2000 generations on the lands that the University now occupies. For that reason it was essential to include the traditional language groups from each of the campuses of the University of South Australia - Kurna (Adelaide), Boandik (Mt Gambier) and Barngarla (Whyalla). Ancient Land Processional is music for ceremony and for celebration. I wanted this work to convey the importance and excitement of one of life's great rites of passage – the graduation ceremony".
- Deborah Cheetham AO

Deborah Cheetham AO

Deborah Cheetham, Yorta Yorta woman, soprano, composer and educator has been a leader in the Australian arts landscape for more than 25 years. In the 2014 Queen's Birthday Honours List, Deborah was appointed as an Officer of the Order of Australia (AO), for distinguished service to the performing arts as an opera singer, composer and artistic director, to the development of Indigenous artists, and to innovation in performance.

As a composer Deborah has received numerous commissions since the success of her opera Pecan Summer (2010) and now specialises in working with traditional languages.

The Ngarrindjeri Women's Choir

Singing is an essential part of identity in Aboriginal culture. The women who gather to sing in Murray Bridge do so because it is part of who they are as Aboriginal women. These women have performed for many important events over the past decade but are never happier than when singing in community and passing on culture through song.

The Ngarrindjeri Women's Choir

The Marryatville Concert Choir – Aldis Sils Musical Director

The choir is one of the many co-curricular ensembles at Marryatville High School's internationally acclaimed Special Interest Music Centre. The choir is recognised as one of the best school choirs in Adelaide. In the past decade it has won competitions in Adelaide (Adelaide Choral Eisteddfods), Sydney (Sydney Performing Arts Challenge, ABC Classic FM Choir of the Year State Champion 2006), and internationally (Tallinn International Choral Festival 2007). The choir has toured Central Europe including concerts at the Kodaly School in Kecskemet. The choir performs a wide variety of repertoire in a range of styles, and where possible in original languages.

Adelaide Symphony Orchestra

Established in 1936, the internationally acclaimed Adelaide Symphony Orchestra is South Australia's largest performing arts organisation. Today the ASO plays a major role in Adelaide's cultural and economic vibrancy, and enriches the community through a diverse program of world-class performances to more than 90,000 concertgoers each season. The Ancient Land Processional orchestral music was performed by the ASO, conducted by Nicholas Buc and recorded in Adelaide's ABC studios.

History of Academic Dress

Academic dress has a long history, almost as long as that of universities themselves. It began with the foundation of the European universities in the 12th and 13th centuries. Until that time, education was carried out within the monasteries, such as one at Oxford where divinity, philosophy and arts were studied as early as the 8th century.

It was not until the 12th century that groups of teachers and students gathered together for classes outside monastery walls in a move that was recognisable as the beginnings of universities. Two of the outstanding schools at that time were in Bologna and Paris. During the 13th century the Roman legal word universitas became a common name for study groups. The third great university of the Middle Ages, Oxford, emerged at that time. Much of the symbolism of academic dress is bound up with the history of those early universities which have influenced the creation and maintenance of a distinctive form of dress.

In the earliest times, university statutes concerning academic costume were somewhat vague, and it was not until the late 14th and early 15th centuries, as lay fashions began to change, that universities began to adopt the policy of setting down particular requirements for the shape and cut of academic dress.

Over the centuries, gowns have evolved in various forms from the original outer garment or robe commonly worn by the laity and members of the clergy, to the many modern versions for the various levels of academic awards. Hoods have developed from the head coverings worn by students in the early ages. They were especially useful in inclement weather and in the draughty cloisters of monasteries.

At Canterbury, in the 13th century, the monks' hoods were lined with fur because of the cold. Windows in those days were not glazed.

It would seem that no matter how young a university is, one of the first priorities is to adopt a style of academic dress which is distinctive.

The University of South Australia is no exception. In 1991, the University acknowledged the academic dress of its predecessor institutions and then in February 1992, the University's academic dress was determined by the Council and the first graduation ceremonies wearing the new University of South Australia academic dress occurred during April 1992. It is interesting to note that the hood chosen is of Oxford Burgon style while the gown is of the Cambridge style, an interesting link with two of the greatest European universities of the Middle Ages.

Mortarboard tassels for Indigenous Australian graduates

The University of South Australia is proud of its commitment to Australian reconciliation. To enable Indigenous Australians to have their ancestry recognised, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander graduates have the option of wearing a mortarboard with a tassel incorporating the colours of the respective flags (red, black and yellow for Aboriginal graduates and blue, green and white for Torres Strait Islander graduates).

Ceremony Tradition

Academic Procession and stage party

The traditional custom in which dignitaries of the university enter the graduation hall is known as the academic procession. The University of South Australia's academic procession is led by higher degree graduates and members of the University Council, followed by academic staff and senior management of the University, including the Vice Chancellor. The Chancellor is the last to enter.

Academics sit at the rear of the stage and Council members in the second to front row. The front row is reserved for staff reading graduand names, the academic registrar, senior managers, the Vice Chancellor, guest speaker, honorary award recipients, special guests, and the Chancellor.

In some circumstances the Chancellor may be represented by the Deputy Chancellor or Pro Chancellor. The Vice Chancellor may be represented by the Provost and Chief Academic Officer.

Academic Dress

Academic dress usually reflects the highest academic qualification of the wearer. Special ceremonial gowns are also worn and these represent the wearer's position and title. The Vice Chancellor can be recognised by the distinctive Fairford Brocade gown adorned with silver oakleaf lace, and black bonnet with blue tassel. The Chancellor's gown is also Fairford Brocade but incorporates gold oakleaf lace and notably this is worn with a black bonnet finished with a gold tassel. If you look carefully you will see that this gown also has a combination of gold stripes on each sleeve instead of the silver stripes located on the Vice Chancellor's gown.

The Provost and Chief Academic Officer and the Deputy Vice Chancellor: Research and Enterprise wear a black Fairford Brocade gown adorned by silver oakleaf lace.

Senior management wear a black gown with blue facing on the front and rear collar, and a black bonnet with silver tassel. The academic registrar wears a similar gown. However you will note that the blue facing is not as wide and the collar is black, and a black mortar board with blue tassel is worn. Readers wear the gown reflecting their highest award, as do Professors receiving the honorary title of Emeritus Professor, and those being awarded with the honorary title of University Fellow. Recipients of honorary Doctor of the University awards wear the prestigious blue University of South Australia honorary doctorate gown trimmed with yellow and red facing, and a red, yellow, and blue hood. A black bonnet with black tassel is the accompanying headwear.

End of Ceremony

The academic recession signals the end of the ceremony and is led by the Chancellor, followed by the stage party in the reverse order to which it entered. Newly conferred graduates join the recession signalling their entry to the academic community.

University of South Australia Awards

Degree types

University of South Australia students have a range of program options when undertaking their study. The following are examples of other degree titles you may hear in addition to Bachelor awards, during the graduation ceremony.

Doctor of Philosophy

Doctor of Philosophy programs provide training and education with the objective of producing graduates with the capacity to conduct research independently at a high level of originality and quality.

Professional Doctorate

A Professional Doctorate is a rigorous program of advanced study and research, designed specifically to meet the needs of industry and professional groups. Professional Doctorates usually consist of a blend of coursework and research.

Degree with Honours

A degree with Honours is a program of four or more years in duration, which includes a minimum of one year of advanced studies, for students who demonstrate a high level of achievement in the initial years of their program.

Double degree

A double degree is a program where two contrasting and complementary programs at the same level have been combined to complement each other, such that the core elements of the two awards are undertaken simultaneously and the requirements of each award are fully met. These graduates receive two parchments.

Bachelor degree

A bachelor degree is an undergraduate award of three or more years of full-time or equivalent part-time study.

Co-badged degrees

A collaborative arrangement between recognised providers, resulting in a single award and may include the co-badging of a single parchment.

Dual degrees

Collaborative partnerships between the University of South Australia and another recognised provider enable students to undertake a degree jointly facilitated by both institutions. Graduates of these programs will be issued with parchments from each institution.

University of South Australia Medal

Pridham Hall

Pridham Hall is named to acknowledge the extraordinary benefaction and leadership of Mr Andrew Pridham AO. Mr Pridham is a proud alumnus of the UniSA Property Resource Management degree (1988).

His transformative gift to the University acknowledges his gratitude to UniSA for his 'outstanding education' as well as reflecting his belief in the positive role education can play in one's life.

Mr Pridham also believes that those that have the capacity to contribute to the broader community should do so generously and encourage others to do the same.

"The University of South Australia is an important institution very worthy of support. Universities develop minds and foster new thinking. It is a privilege for The Pridham Foundation to support UniSA and contribute to this impressive building and be a part of the process of developing future generations.

The first Pridhams arrived in South Australia in 1849, just 13 years after the proclamation of Government in SA. This is an investment of 170 years by my family and its preceding generations. South Australia is important to our family and in particular my direct family, being my parents LR (Bob) and Marie Pridham and my siblings Helen, David, Mary and Richard.

I hope for the great success of all students who pass through the doors of this great hall in the process of their studies at UniSA."

Leave a lasting impression

Embed yourself in the DNA of the Pridham Hall

By building Pridham Hall we have created a heart of the University - an iconic venue where thousands of memories will be made.

The state-of-the-art facility features a sports complex, a swimming pool, and facilities for graduations and corporate and cultural events. It is a significant part of the student experience and offers important sport and fitness services to the entire local community, including the Health Precinct on North Terrace.

There are three spaces and sculptural forms where we can permanently etch your name and your three words to live by in Pridham Hall to forever inform and inspire future generations of students.

Hundreds of graduates, staff and supporters have already donated $1,000 to embed their name and words, or those of a loved one, into the chandelier, inverted pyramid and the swimming pool.

To find out more about how you too can participate in this unique initiative please visit www.unisa.edu.au/pridhamhall

Support UniSA's Scholarship Fund

UniSA's Scholarship Fund provides scholarships, grants and prizes that recognise academic achievement and give vital financial support to students who need it most.

UniSA has more students from a disadvantaged background than any other university in South Australia, and there are many students at UniSA for whom money is a real issue. Many have multiple jobs to support themselves, some come from remote rural areas, and more than 25 per cent have little financial support at home – which puts them at risk of not completing their degrees and foregoing their dream.

The Fund supports students tackling the problems of the world as they progress through masters and PhD studies, as well as students just starting out in their undergraduate studies who are finding their purpose and inspiration.

By making a donation to the Scholarship Fund you can help future students.

It is a wonderful way of giving back and acknowledging what you have accomplished. To give someone else a boost please visit: giving.unisa.edu.au/causes/scholarship-fund

Congratulations!

Welcome to the UniSA alumni community!

From the moment you graduate, you automatically become a UniSA alum. Being an alum connects you to over 230,000+ fellow alumni, who reside in more than 134 countries. This global network is one you can tap into anytime during your career and life-long journey.

Alumni benefits

As an alum you can also enjoy continued access to the UniSA libraries, online journals, as well as maintain your UniSA email for life. You'll receive exclusive invites to events, and news stories of your fellow alumni.

For 12 months after your completion date you can access support with a career advisor, attend drop in sessions, networking and receive help with your resumé, job applications and interview techniques.

At anytime throughout your career, you will have access to the online UniSA CareerHub and Self-Help Career Resources tools - a range of resources designed to complement different levels and ambitions.

Conferral of Honorary Academic Title, Emeritus Professor

Professor Tanya Monro AC

FAA, FTSE, FOSA, FAIP, PhD, BSc (Hons)

Professor Tanya Monro commenced as Chief Defence Scientist in March 2019. In this role she is head of Defence Science and Technology Group (DSTG) and Capability Manager for Innovation, Science and Technology within the Australian Department of Defence.

In June 2022, Professor Monro was awarded Companion of the Order of Australia (AC) for eminent service to scientific and technological development, to research and innovation, to tertiary education, particularly in the field of photonics, and to professional organisations.

Other honours and awards include: the Bragg Gold Medal for the best PhD thesis by an Australian university student, Prime Minister's Malcolm McIntosh Prize for Physical Scientist of the Year, SA Australian of the Year, Eureka Prize for Excellence in Interdisciplinary Scientific Research, and ARC Georgina Sweet Laureate Fellowship.

Professor Monro obtained her PhD in physics from The University of Sydney, and was awarded a Royal Society University Research Fellowship at the University of Southampton. Her previous roles include Deputy Vice Chancellor Research and Innovation at the University of South Australia and inaugural director of the Institute for Photonics and Advanced Sensing and the ARC Centre of Excellence for Nanoscale Bio Photonics at the University of Adelaide.

Professor Monro is a Fellow of the Australian Academy of Science, the Australian Academy of Technology and Engineering (ATSE), the Optical Society of America and the Australian Institute of Physics. She also sits on the board of the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO).

PRIDHAM HALL

The Occasional Address

Andrew Pridham AO

BAppSc (PRM)

Andrew Pridham has a reputation as one of Australia's most distinguished deal-makers, with over 20 years of experience in investment banking. After graduating from the University of South Australia (UniSA) in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in Property Resource Management, Andrew moved to Sydney the next day to work in development and funds management. At this time, Australia was in a deep recession and there was turmoil in the property market which was particularly evident in the unlisted property sector. Andrew had a strong view that the only solution was to list these funds, and as such he became heavily involved in the dramatic growth of the Listed Property Trust sector (now known as REITS). Andrew joined UBS in 1997 which at the time had just been ranked as the number one investment bank in Australia.

In 1999, he was appointed to the UBS Global Management Board and relocated to London as the Global Head of Real Estate Investment Banking. Andrew also spent a stint working in Singapore. He returned to Australia in 2002 and, after a brief period in retirement, was coaxed back into investment banking by a number of former clients and established his own investment banking boutique. The business was sold to JPMorgan in 2004 where Andrew took on the role of Head of Investment Banking and ultimately Executive Chairman of Investment Banking. During his six-year tenure, he completed many major mergers and acquisitions, equity raising and other advisory transactions and played a leading role in the significant growth of JPMorgan's Australian business.

In 2009, Andrew left JPMorgan to establish a joint venture with New York headquartered investment bank Moelis & Company, setting up the Australian arm of the business. Today he holds the position of Managing Director and Head of Investment Banking, based in the company's Sydney office.

An avid AFL fan, Andrew Pridham has been a member of the Sydney Swans Board since 2002, assuming the position of Chairman from the outgoing Richard Colless in December 2013. He is also Deputy Chair of the Sydney Swans Foundation which is dedicated to ensuring strong development pathways for AFL and AFLW players through the QBE Sydney Swans Academy and development of the brightest young talent to succeed on and off the field.

In the 2019 Australia Day Honours Andrew Pridham was made an Officer of the Order of Australia (AO) for "distinguished service to the investment banking and asset management sector, to sporting groups, and to philanthropy".

Order of Ceremony

Processional music will be played.

The Australian National Anthem will be sung by Ms Sharon Turley, Soprano.

Professor David Lloyd will present Mr Andrew Pridham AO, BAppSc (PRM), for the honorary award of Doctor of the University.

The occasional address will be delivered by Mr Andrew Pridham AO.

The Chancellor, on behalf of the University, will confer awards on the candidates.

The Chancellor will close the ceremony.

The Occasional Address

George Takei

MA, BA (UCLA)

George Takei is a civil rights activist, social media superstar, Grammy-nominated recording artist, New York Times bestselling author, and pioneering actor whose career has spanned six decades. He has appeared in more than 40 feature films and hundreds of television roles, most famously as Hikaru Sulu in Star Trek, and he has used his success as a platform to fight for social justice, LGBTQIA rights, and marriage equality. His advocacy is personal: during World War II, Takei spent his childhood unjustly imprisoned in United States internment camps along with 120,000 other Japanese Americans.

He now serves as Chairman Emeritus and a member of the Japanese American National Museum's Board of Trustees. Takei served on the board of the Japan-United States Friendship Commission under President Bill Clinton, and, in 2004, was conferred with the Gold Rays with Rosette of the Order of the Rising Sun by the Emperor of Japan for his contribution to US-Japan relations.

Order of Ceremony

Processional music will be played.

The audience is requested to stand for the entrance of Her Excellency The Honourable Frances Adamson AC, Governor of South Australia, the Academic Procession, Council and Official Party.

The Australian National Anthem will be sung by Ms Sharon Turley, Soprano.

Professor David Lloyd will present Mr George Takei MA, BA (UCLA), for the honorary award of Doctor of the University.

The occasional address will be delivered by Mr George Takei.

The Chancellor, on behalf of the University, will confer awards on the candidates.

The Chancellor will close the ceremony.

PRIDHAM HALL

The Occasional Address

James Barnes AO

Jimmy Barnes is the heart and soul of Australian rock and roll. He has 19 Number One albums, more than The Beatles, and he has sold more records in Australia than any other local artist. For over 40 years he has delivered some of our most intense and iconic live performances both as a solo performer and as front man for the legendary Cold Chisel, leading him to be inducted into the ARIA Hall of fame... twice. He is truly in a league of his own.

In addition to his phenomenal music career, Jimmy has also written three Number One best-selling books, with his acclaimed memoirs Working Class Boy and Working Class Man winning back to back ABIA Awards in 2017 and 2018. Never one to slow down, Jimmy released two new titles in 2021 – a 2nd children's book, Rosie the Rhinoceros and, with his wife Jane, a cookbook titled Where the River Bends.

He and Jane also lifted Australian spirits throughout the COVID-19 pandemic with their daily 'at home' performances attracting over 100 million views on social media.

Order of Ceremony

Processional music will be played.

The Australian National Anthem will be sung by Ms Sharon Turley, Soprano.

Professor David Lloyd will present Mr James Barnes AO, for the honorary award of Doctor of the University.

The occasional address will be delivered by Mr James Barnes AO.

The Chancellor, on behalf of the University, will confer awards on the candidates.

The Chancellor will close the ceremony.

Conferral of Honorary Award, Doctor of the University

Geoff Wilson

Geoff Wilson was born in Bridgetown, Western Australia in 1927.

At the age of 14 his drawings were seen by Adelaide High School teacher Alex Ramsay who introduced him to the Senior Art Teacher Thomas Bone with whom he began watercolour classes.

He began teacher training at Adelaide Teacher's College and the South Australian School of Art, and taught in boys technical high schools for 10 years.

In 1962 Geoff was appointed lecturer at the South Australian School of Art and in his 20 year career became Head of Fine Art Painting and the Drawing Department. He is remembered as a gifted teacher.

Post his teaching career Geoff concentrated on being a landscape painter and is still exhibiting in one-man exhibitions. He donates many of his works to charity and to the Friends of the South Australian School of Art to raise funds for student scholarships at UniSA.

The book, "Geoff Wilson : Interrogated Landscape " chartered 70 art works of Geoff Wilson's practice over 65 years from 1948 to 2013. The book was written by Barry Pearce then Curator of Australian Art at the Art Gallery of New South Wales. He recorded Geoff's life and his painting excursions around South Australia. Geoff frequently painted "inplein air" accompanied by other well known artists like Dave Dallwitz, David Dridan and well known Australian comedian Barry Humphries.

Order of Ceremony

Processional music will be played.

The Australian National Anthem will be sung by Ms Sharon Turley, Soprano.

The Provost and Chief Academic Officer, Professor Joanne Cys LFDIA, PhD, MArch, BA(IntDes), BA, will present Mr Geoffrey Wilson OAM, for the honorary award of Doctor of the University.

The occasional address will be delivered by Mr Andrew Pridham AO.

The Chancellor, on behalf of the University, will confer awards on the candidates.

The Chancellor will close the ceremony.
