

2010 program

Participants will participate in a series of interactive workshop sessions, facilitated discussion and small group activities focussed around:

- The national and international context
- Publishing
- Grants and funding
- Quality and benchmarking
- Collaboration and networking
- Enhancing personal and social competencies
- Career planning

Additional topics may be included for special interest groups, depending on the level of interest.

The program utilises the expertise of experienced researchers who share their insight and learning to support early career researchers and their research activities. Participants will receive individual mentoring.
