

UniSA as an Employer of Choice for Aboriginal People

Deanne Hanchant-Nichols
Aboriginal Employment Consultant

Michelle De Pasquale
Manager: Talent Attraction and Recruitment

University of South Australia

We acknowledge that the city campuses of the University of South Australia are on the traditional Country of the Kurna people of the Adelaide Plains.

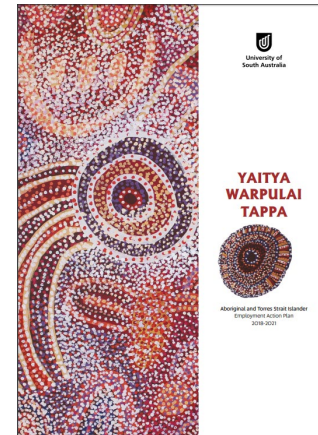

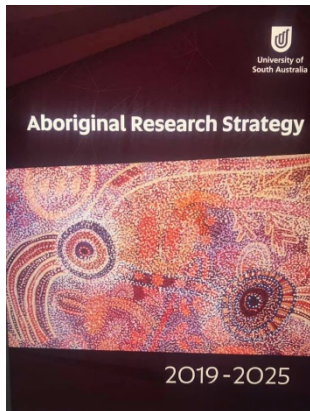

We recognise and respect the Kurna Peoples cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship with the land, and we acknowledge that they are of continuing importance to the Kurna people living today.

UniSA has a committed to become the University of Choice for Aboriginal People

- Reconciliation Action Plan
 - Yaitya Warpulai Tappa (Aboriginal Work Path)
 - Aboriginal Research Strategy

Support for Aboriginal Students

- Wurringka Student Services
- Aboriginal Tutoring Program
- Aboriginal Pathway Program

Aboriginal Employment

Commitment 1:

3% of the University's workforce will be made up of Aboriginal People by 2025

Aboriginal Employment

Commitment 2:

We will position UniSA as an Employer of Choice for Aboriginal People by 2025.

Aboriginal Employment

Commitment 3:

We will develop UniSA as a culturally competent University

Aboriginal Employment

Commitment 4:

We will build a connected community, sharing knowledges and ways of seeing and knowing so all our people thrive

