

YOUR ACADEMIC PROGRESS RESULTS

Dear <Students First Name>

Notice of Preclusion

As we have communicated previously, we monitor academic progress regularly via the Academic Review process to help you succeed in your program.

For 1st Review Period 2022, you have been identified as making unsatisfactory progress in the program [Program Name] due to:

- Failed more than 50% of your program

How does this impact my studies?

As you have failed more than 50% of your program you are now at the final stage of Academic Review, you will now be precluded from further study.

Preclusion means that:

- your enrolment in your program will be discontinued
- you will be prevented from studying in this program, or a program in the same discipline, for the next two years
- application for re-admission will follow normal procedures and is not guaranteed

Please be aware that:

- as a condition of your student visa, you are required to maintain satisfactory academic progress and attendance. This means you must continue your studies while your appeal is being considered.
- the University is obliged to maintain your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) while the appeal is ongoing.
- preclusion from your program constitutes a breach of your student visa. If you are precluded, the University is required by law to notify the Department of Home Affairs. This results in cancellation of your CoE and may result in the cancellation of your student visa.

What do I do next?

Appeal

If you feel you have grounds to appeal the decision to preclude you from your program, you may appeal by completing an

Accept

You do not need to take any further action if you accept the outcome.

Appeal to the Preclusion Appeals Committee application and attaching supporting documentation.

From Friday 15 August 2022, any courses you are currently enrolled in will be dropped and you will be withdrawn from your program.
