

Dear <Students First Name>

We recently sent you a communication regarding the decision to preclude you from the [Program Name] due to unsatisfactory academic progress.

As you have not appealed within the required timeframe, you have now been precluded from your program. Your relevant enrolments will be cancelled, and the related debt cleared.

What does it mean to be precluded?

As previously advised, preclusion means that:

- You will be prevented from studying in this program, or a program in the same discipline, for the next two years.
- Application for re-admission will follow normal procedures and is not guaranteed.
- If you gain re-admission you will be classified as a new student for the purposes of assessing fees or eligibility for Commonwealth support or assistance.

Your preclusion is effective from Sunday 29 November 2020. If you wish to re-apply through the normal admission process you can do so as of Tuesday 29 November 2022.

This decision is final and there are no further avenues of appeal available within the University.

Can I take my appeal further?

You are entitled to appeal this decision at minimal or no cost through external avenues which include, but are not limited to:

- The Office of the State Ombudsman of South Australia

Please note that this appeal relates only to the University's administrative processes. It is not an appeal of the decision itself.

If you decide to pursue your appeal through an external body:

- You must advise in writing of the name of the external body with whom you have lodged an appeal by Friday 29 July 2022.
- Your place in the program will be held, pending the outcome of this action. However, you will not be permitted to enrol in further courses, or incur further fees.
- You must advise in writing of the outcome of the appeal within 10 working days from the date specified in the letter of notification from the appeal body.

If the appeal is unsuccessful, the University will take the appropriate action, irrespective of whether you choose to pursue further avenues of external appeal.

If you are an international student and hold a student visa:

- The University is obliged to maintain your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) while the appeal is ongoing.
- You are entitled to access and receive the outcome of one external appeal before the University will report your unsatisfactory progress to the Department of Home Affairs; and
- If Campus Central does not receive written notice from you that you have lodged an external appeal within the required timeframe or if any external appeal is unsuccessful, the University will report your unsatisfactory progress to the Department of Home Affairs. As previously advised, this results in cancellation of your CoE and may result in the cancellation of your student visa.
