PART 2: CONSENT OR RESTRICTION ON AVAILABILITY OF DIGITAL COPY OF THESIS

Research degree students are required to provide a digital copy of their thesis to the Research Outputs Repository. Theses submitted to the repository are included in the National Library of Australia's Trove service and are indexed by Google, OAlster, OpenDOAR and Proquest Dissertations & Thesis. Depositing your thesis into ROR does not transfer copyright as this remains with you the author. Upon conferral of your degree your thesis will be provided to the Library by the Research Examinations Team, along with your Author's Consent form.

My thesis does not contain any personal information such as addresses or private phone numbers which require redaction

Please select one of the following 2 options:

1. I consent to my thesis being made immediately openly available to the wider research community to support the visibility of my research

OR

2. Following discussion with my supervisor, I require restricted access to my thesis (a 6- or 12-month embargo) before it being made openly available to the wider research community.

If restriction is required, please select 6- or 12-month option  6 months  12 months

Can UniSA staff & students access thesis while restriction is in place?  Yes  No

Example Criteria for Embargo Requests

- A contractual obligation with a third party sponsor or agency that requires a restriction on access
- Release of the thesis may compromise the safety or wellbeing of the author or others
- Release of the thesis may compromise national security
- The thesis contains confidential legal, cultural or sensitive material
- A contractual requirement by a prospective publisher that the thesis is not publicly available

For further information please see section G of Procedure AB-58 P6 Research Degrees Thesis Preparation and Examination

Note: If you require the work to be restricted for a period longer than 12 months, you should make a written request to your Dean of Research (or delegate), who will then make a decision concerning longer/continued restrictions on access.
